Elohim Cleaning Contractors Incorporated is a minority/woman owned, 8(a) Certified small business specializing in construction site cleaning and related services for government agencies and private commercial clients. Elohim has experienced rapid growth due to extensive contacts, outstanding service, and competitive pricing. Our firm has been ranked #8 Top Minority Firm in the City of Philadelphia employing as many as 83 employees in 2008.

Our managerial staff has well over 25 years experience within our industry. We pride ourselves in possessing the unique ability to assess any project and provide cost effective, environmentally friendly solutions to meet our customers' needs.

Green Cleaning Initiative

Elohim understands that green cleaning is no longer the exception. It is growing in popularity and more and more businesses are asking their cleaning contractors to use eco-friendly cleaning products and techniques. Elohim's staff is trained in sustainability practices. We provide green product alternatives and offers points toward LEED certification.
